A Woman Owned Small Business

Premium Laboratory Consumables Since 1977

Quality Guarantee

Bio Plas, Inc. guarantees our laboratory consumables to be free of manufacturer and materials defects for a period of one year from the date of delivery.

If any part of the product proves to be defective in material or manufacturing quality under normal and proper use, Bio Plas, Inc. will, at our sole option, replace or credit the defective product at no extra cost.

The purchaser must notify us as soon as possible upon discovering the defect, including purchase order number, lot number, and a description of the issue.

This guarantee does not cover defects caused by misuse use or improper storage.
